

Advanced English - Building confidence

An English language course to help you gain confidence in yourself

Programme of the course

Starting from an already high knowledge of the English language, the main focus of the programme is to help participants gain the confidence needed in order to improve their ability to communicate and collaborate in English.

The programme will include complex grammatical and lexical structures and learning strategies on how to make presentations in English.

At the end of the course participants will be expected to make a power point or word presentation on a subject of their choice.
